1. Chapter 1

What if?

"Get those torches in the air!" a Viking yelled from the ground as I help the dragons distract the Vikings of Berk while two of my wives went to the Haddock and Hofferson homes that is when I see my target the woman was running to the Haddock house I wait until I see Stoick run after his wife to make sure his wife and son were safe. I speed towards Valka when I hear 'Descew I have Astrid' from Jueling and 'I have Hiccup' from Sakren I drop in front of Valka so that Stoick can see that a DRAGON is being ridden I jump from Golden's saddle and charge Stoick while Golden grabs Valka as Golden flies away I see Platinum and Silver fly from the homes I sent them two my wings spread out as Stoick stops I say to him my voice as cold as ice

"You will meet them once more in 10 years. Though your son, wife, and Astrid won't be the same as they would have been if raised here!" I leap into the air as I hear the chief yell

"I WILL HUNT YOU DOWN DEMON AND KILL YOU!"

Ten years later

Descew watched as Hiccron circled his enemy a blond haired female with ice blue eyes.

"Begin!" Descew yelled out the two charged ate each other as they fought I felt Cloudjumper come up beside me _*Descew my lord* _Cloudjumper says with a bow of his head.

"Cloudjumper, Vereken any news?" he asks his eyes never leaving the two fighting

"Stoick is getting ready to travel to gather men to hunt you down and kill you seeing how he thinks we are dead." Spoke the woman on the back of the dragon

"I win." Arkinika exclaimed loudly

"Good job Astrid." Jueling said very proud of their daughter. Descew smiles and tells Hiccup

"You did get Hiccup this time try and lead with your left foot instead of your right." Descew, Jueling, Sakren, and Nekron, have been training them since the age of six. After their first fight Descew found out Hiccup was soul bounded to his daughter and started to train him in blacksmithing and magic mixing, Descew learned he had the ability to control the four elements before but when Hiccup turned 10 Descew gave him the Blooddango so when they both turned the age of 19 their bound would be stable and officially making them a wedded couple.

"Well they will never find â€“" Descew was cut off as the place shook by the sound of explosions

"Come on but keep your masks on just in case." As everyone pulled their helms on Descew looked at them to make sure they did not fall off while they flew. Valka's looked like a snake complete with the hiss when she spoke; Astrid's was a sabretooth tiger; and Hiccups was a complete set of armor and it lived up to its name. The bone armor looks fragile but was as hard as adamantine and his looked like a fanged skull. As soon as they mounted they took off to one of the cave entrances and what they found was bad.

"WE ARE UNDER SEIGE DRAGONS DEFEND OUR HOME!" Descew commanded as he looked out over the sails of the ships he saw the Outcasts, The Berserkers, Drago Blodvist's men, and Berk. Descew looked for their chiefs. As he found them he saw three of them locked in combat with his wives; Nekron was fighting Alvin, Sakren was fighting Dauger the Deranged, and Jueling was fighting Drago. Then Descew saw him Stoick the Vast was fighting a skrill, a thunderdrum, and what looked like nadder.

"DRAGONS LEAVE HIM HE IS MINE!" Descew yelled as he dove off his Dragon and the real fight had begun
